To Whom It May Concern:

Some of the adjectives that our teachers used to describe Jill Militzer's Author Day presentation at Cooper School included: awesome, exciting, informative, and inspiring. Jill held the students interest with a terrific multi-media presentation about the writing process using her "Kizzy" book as a backdrop.

Jill has a wonderful rapport with children and they eagerly enter her storybook world. She speaks directly at their level and utilizes Kid Pix and other media strategies to gain and keep their attention. Jill's enthusiasm and excellent speaking voice make her a natural presenter for school assemblies.

If you have any questions regarding Mrs. Militzer and her presentation, feel free to call me at 262-763-0180.

Sincerely,

Daniel J. Armstrong
